Father DARKLEAF'S Column BY C.H.R.

Well, here's gridding my own business... and maybe yours.

C. H. Agee, game warden, claims that there are over 2-200 dogs in Buckingham county. What do you know about that? And there's no depression in the dog crop, 'cause that's about 10 more than last year.

Somehow it seems nearer to me from Slider's to Buckingham than from Appomattox to Slider's. Mayhap it's 'cause on that end I'm occupied with pleasant thought of J.H. Lewis and Charlie.

From my note-book: there will be a one day session of Buckingham court around July 16. Local doctor with a skull on his desk... H. M.
Burge drives produce to Richmond city market every Wednesday night, getting back 3 or 4 C. H. Coleman,
Appomattox Civil War Vet., broke up a parade in Richmond while a band played "Dixie" for him to jig dance.

Another Appomattox vet declared, "This is the best time I've had since I was in the hospital." Jack Shoddy says "Dillwyn Lake is bigger and better than ever." all credit is due Miss Eula May Burke for looking out for the welfare of local vets at the reunion... Margaret Tompkins got married Saturday night... Fred Johnson, of Ballsville, in Powhatan, made and sold 4,000 brooms last year (he was in in Dillwyn Monday)... A. M. Alexander, who conducted our campaign last fall, is now in Charlottesville.

Jupiter Bonus sensed the sentiment of the Chicago convention and sent us plenty of wet weather first of the week.

Governor Pollard refused point-blank to wear a "repeal button" at Chicago. Harry Byrd got mistaken in nevera-times for his brother, "Dick."

rary secretary of the Virginia delegation.

Bremo Plant Suffers Damage From Fire

Estimate $500,000 Loss to Public Service Co.
Plant

Bremo Bluff, June 29.—Fire and an explosion of an oil tank in the great New Bremo Bluff plant of the Virginia Public Service Company, completed last year at the approximate cost of $4,000,000, late Tuesday wrecked one end of the gigantic plant and did damage which may reach $500,000.

The fire began with the leakage of an oil pipe carrying hot steam, thence the flames spread to a large oil tank adjacent to a turbo of the unit in the northwestern end of the plant and burned furiously for about an hour. The beautiful tiled interior of the vast building and the great presented a picture of great wreck and ruin.

Every window in the western end of the plant was broken out by the flames and the heat.

One unit of the plant, including boilers and turbo, was apparently undamaged except for smoke and that unit was put into operation later in the evening.

The great plant was erected by the Virginia Public Service Company as its base load plant and has been furnishing current for its inter-connecting lines extending throughout Northern Virginia as far west as Hinton, W. Va. The plant is considered the most advanced ever erected in the history of steam-made electricity and has been visited by hundreds of experts who wished to inspect the latest work in electric plant construction. It is understood the damaged plant will be immediately reconstructed by the company upon the building.

When Virginia's name was reached in the roll call of former Governor Harry Flood Byrd, which was given with tremendous ovation.

Editor's note: Times-Virginian presses were stopped this afternoon to allow the insertion of the above late news after earlier final editions had been completed. Final papers were delivered at the post office here just nineteen minutes after the above news came in over radio.
